

JEFFREY POLEY

PARKER POE, LLP
PARTNER

Jeff Poley has been practicing municipal bond and banking/finance law for more than 20 years. He has helped close large and small transactions all along the Eastern Seaboard. He joined Parker Poe in 2007 as a partner in the Public Finance group in the firm's Raleigh office.

Jeff has worked as bond counsel, bank counsel, and underwriter's counsel in general obligation bonds, revenue bonds, installment financings, and interest rate swap transactions for local governmental units in North Carolina since 1996. He has worked extensively with schools, universities, colleges, hospitals, and continuing care retirement communities. He also serves as lender's and borrower's counsel in traditional commercial banking transactions.

He received his undergraduate degree from Duke University and his law degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.
