

Alan Woolever
Gilmore & Bell, P.C.

Alan Woolever is a shareholder/director tax attorney in the Kansas City office of Gilmore & Bell, P.C. Mr. Woolever serves as tax counsel on a variety of public finance transactions advising on matters related to the issuance of tax-exempt debt obligations and post-issuance compliance responsibilities, including, IRS examinations, related to those obligations. Prior to law school, Mr. Woolever was a municipal bond trader focusing on secondary market transactions for Edward Jones in Phoenix, Arizona.

Mr. Woolever earned a Bachelor of Science in Finance (summa cum laude) from Arizona State University, a Juris Doctor (cum laude) and a Masters of Laws in Taxation from the University of Missouri – Kansas City School of Law. While in law school he was an Articles Editor for The Urban Lawyer, a national quarterly law journal published by the American Bar Association Section of State and Local Government and honored as the Arthur Mag Graduate Fellow in Tax Law. Mr. Woolever currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Association for Governmental Leasing and Finance and is a member of the Missouri Bar Association, the National Association of Bond Lawyers, and the Kansas City Municipal Bond Club.