

Brad Patterson
Gilmore & Bell, P.C.

Brad Patterson is a shareholder/director of Gilmore & Bell, P.C. in the firm's Salt Lake City office. Mr. Patterson has been active in the public finance area since 1990 with a focus on bond counsel, disclosure counsel, and underwriter's counsel engagements in Western states for all types of financings, including traditional governmental bonds and conduit transactions. Mr. Patterson has structured general obligation, utility revenue, special tax revenue and lease revenue transactions for a variety of clients, ranging from special purpose districts to state authorities. Those transactions include lease purchase arrangements for public facilities, pooled financings for infrastructure needs, commercial paper programs for capital programs and installment purchase agreements for equipment acquisitions.

Mr. Patterson is a member of the National Association of Bond Lawyers (NABL), has spoken at conferences for NABL, served as editor for NABL's Deskbook of Securities Laws, and is currently serving as the Chairman of its Securities Law Committee for NABL. Mr. Patterson is licensed to practice in Utah and Colorado. He received his B.A. degree from Brigham Young University in 1985 and his J.D. from Columbia Law School in 1988.