

Frank D. Hill

Senior Vice President, Director Tax-Exempt Finance,
Commerce Bank
Manhattan, KS

Mr. Hill has been providing tax-exempt financing to State and Local Government entities for over 30 years. He has held the positions of, Vice President, President and Chairman of the AGLF (Association of Governmental Leasing and Finance), the industry trade association and is currently serving on the Board. Mr. Hill has directed the establishment of Vendor/Captive finance programs in almost every market segment from IT to Emergency Equipment as well as “direct lending” to the government market. He currently directs the private placement, tax-exempt finance product offering for Commerce Bank as SVP, throughout the United States.