

Toni Stegeman
Gilmore & Bell, P.C.

Toni Stegeman is a shareholder/director of Gilmore & Bell, P.C. in the firm's Kansas City office. Her law practice has been focused exclusively on public finance for the past 24 years. Ms. Stegeman has represented state and local government entities, banks and other financial institutions in all types of financings, including direct and publicly offered equipment and real estate lease purchase transactions, traditional governmental bonds and conduit transactions for nonprofits and other eligible borrowers. She has been a member of AGLF since 1996, and previously served two terms on the Association's board of directors. She is also a member of the National Association of Bond Lawyers (NABL), and has been a frequent panelist and speaker on tax-exempt leasing and other public finance topics at conferences for NABL and AGLF. Ms. Stegeman is licensed to practice in Missouri, Illinois and Texas.

